PROPHECY

As I look into the future my mind focuses on the year 1952. Ten years have gone by since the graduating class of '42 passed through the halls of Parry McCluer High School. Thirty-five in number, it was the largest class to have graduated from Parry McCluer. Though a fun loving group, it was a very promising class, possessing many of those qualities which go to make up good men and women. Now I am able to set down the results of our failures and our successes at Parry McCluer and in the ten years following.

First, I see Fay Givson, a famous artist. Her latest illustration for the new story "Love In a Mist" may be found in the June issue of the "Ladies Home Journal".

Harrell Woolwine, our wizard at math in '42, has become a prominent civil engineer. It seems that he has just constructed a bridge over "Irish Creek". Wooly had better watch his step with those Irish Creek sirens.

Next I see Marcella Breeden, the new dean of women at Vassar. She believes in stern discipline.

Ray Forlines has made quite a mane for himself among tobacco buyers. He is now a top-rate tobacco auctioneer at Danville, Virginia.

Kenneth Teague, one of Parry McCluer's football stars during high school days, has just accepted the position as head coach at Notre Dame.

Those of you who take the Roanoke Times may read Louise Brockenbrough's column in which she gives her advice to the "lovelorn".

Arlene Ryman, the only women flier regularly employed by the Transatlantic Airways, Inc., has just returned from her latest flight to London.

Remember the famed "Three Stooges" of '42, Curly, Larry, and Mo? It seems that three of our old class cut-ups are very ably filling their shoes. They are Hope, Arch, and Ike.

And here is Gladys Coleman who has just been employed as a manacurist at Decker's Barber Shop.

We wonder why the girls at Southern Seminary have taken such a sudden interest in their English Classes. Could it be the new English professor, Stuart Terrell?

We are all delighted to hear that one of our old classmates has just succeeded Mr. Graybeal as Buena Vista's commonwealth attorney - - - Lucille Overstreet.

Ladies! Here's your opportunity to get your hair styled to suit your personality. Make an appointment with Robert Davis, noted hair stylist. He is staying over for another week at Mildred's Beauty Shop.

Remember our May Queen of '42, Doris Rublé? She has just become the leading model at Saks, Fifth Avenue.

This demure lassie of the Salvation Army is none other than Audrey Byers. Bring your nickels and dimes and give them to a good cause.

Here we have June Davis Garrett, the farmer's wife. She's now living near Wesley Chapel.

Mary Alice Shewey has gone far since her singing debut in the Junior Play of 1942. She is now singing with the Metropolitan Opera Company in New York.

In all fields of service we find the P. M. High Alumni. Reverend Joseph McCormick is pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Lynchburg, Virginia.

Atlas Keiser is now assistant librarian in the Library of Congress.

During high school days we always thought Jean Nicely was too lazy ever to accomplish much, but she has evidently fooled us. We see her here with her trophy which she recently won in the National Women's Golf Tournament.

Who would have thought ten years ago, that Nancy Mae Shewey would be a waitress at Paul's Cafe.

Doctor Norman Painter, a good example of the "small town boy who makes good", has just been placed in charge of the baby clinic at Jackson Memorial Hospital. Mildred Comer is his head nurse.

For a night of fun and frolic go to Glasgow, Virginia and visit the new night club operated by Louise Lanum and Margaret Floyd, with Minnie Tomlin entertaining with hula dance numbers.

Remember how all the ladies used to flock to the movies to see the love scenes of Charles Boyer? Now it's Robert Floyd.

Could you have imagined Libby Comer, the most timid of us all, having the courage to face a man-eating tiger? Libby has made the headlines by her expeditions into the wilds of India in search of big game.

It seems that Elizabeth Thompson has achieved fame for herself by her bareback riding with the Ringling Brothers Circus. We consider this a great accomplishment for one of our classmates and extend our heartiest congratulations to Elizabeth, the Bareback Queen.

Housewives! Tune in every morning at 10:15 to hear Janice Gillock in her new serial "Sister Suzy", advertising the pupular P- and Q laundry soap.

If any of you are interested in joining a Boy Scout Troop see your local scout leader, Louis Mays.

Last we have John Davis and Alma Woodson who have taken the step of holy matrimony and have, during the last ten years, acquired quite a family.

SAD SOPHOMORIC STATE

(With neither rhyme nor reason)

Oh, Sophomore means "foolish-wise", so they say,
In accents of learned erudition,
But half-fools though we be, we're wise enough to be gay
In our mad, merry, mournful position.

Tho' cloven in twain, united we stand,
Divided between Rinker and Seay,
Berated, bewildered, upbraided, a band
Of wise fools who howl with glee.

For from the queer paradox of our present estate
We know we'll soon be elevated.
In view of the prospect of so pleasant a fate,
How could we remain all deflated?

The wise will go on, the foolish we'll leave
In this sad sophomoric confusion,
To laugh and make merry, to pine and to grieve,
In their same static happy illusion.

You all would forgive us our tale of the woes
Which this foolish-wise year have besot us,
If you only could know how hard 'tis to fill
This one measly page "they" allot us.
